

TELEGRAPH NEWS OF THE WEEK

the count and driver escaped. No reason is given for attack, as there is nothing political upsetting the equilibrium of the country. The assailant has not been discovered, as he ran as soon as he threw bombs.

LONDON, January 13.—Germans have begun invasion of Greece. Bulgars and Germans said to have crossed border in Dorien zone.

NEW YORK, January 12.—Passengers arriving here today from Europe bring news that since October Zeppelin squadrons have attempted raids upon London. They say that these raids have been repulsed through the activities of a fleet of British aeroplanes, which control the air lanes between London and the Channel and North Sea coast.

Dr. W. H. Vincent, of the Colonial Medical corps, who arrived here today, says that three Zeppelins which flew over English territory, were destroyed or captured by the British air patrol.

LONDON, January 12.—Austrian advances into Montenegro offer serious prospect for Allies success in the Balkans. Austrians occupied Mt. Lovcen, in Montenegro, reported, and believed to be true. Uneasiness felt among the entente powers over situation, as the summit of this stronghold dominates Cattaro Bay where the Austrian naval base is being developed. A successful blow by the Teutons into the heart of the Montenegrin country might isolate the Allied troops now defending the northeastern frontier.

LONDON, January 12.—Allies admit that last Saturday and Sunday Germans by hurling division after division at the Allies' positions in Champagne, made slight gains. They declare that Germans won the few trenches at terrible cost to them.

BERLIN, January 12.—French attack north of Leminsil collapsed. Along Champagne section an attack on 1000-yard front was repulsed by Germans.

LONDON, January 12.—Russians are said to be consolidating their newly won positions so successfully that the Austrians in alarm are moving their supplies from the bases established with idea of a spring advance deeper into Russia.

BERLIN, January 12.—French suffered severe loss in the blowing up of an ammunition depot at Lille. 70 killed and 40 injured. Considerable damage done.

NEW YORK, January 12.—Jess Willard, heavy weight champion pugilist of the world, and Frank Moran, another heavy weight, are matched to fight here on March 3, for purse of $45,000. Limit ten rounds.

HONOLULU, January 12.—Through pique at refusal of government to allow aviator to fly here, Japanese of Hawaii have decided to cut carnival.

EL PASO, January 12.—Soldiers of Villa murdered 16 Americans in cold blood. First stripped them, then lined them up against car and shot them to death. Carranza officer refused protection. Warned of intended hold-up and slaughter, Carranza commander declined to send guard with trains to mines. After the killing, the bodies of the murdered men were left lying by the track.

WASHINGTON, January 12.—Senator Philipp, of Rhode Island, declared in Senate yesterday, that the Philippine policy of the democrat party, is weak. He says they would abandon islands. Representative Muller also scored Philippine policy.

LONDON, January 12.—Submarine warfare in Mediterranean continued unabated. From Rome comes word that Islaian steamer Porto, has been sunk by under-sea craft. The commander was unharmed.

WASHINGTON, January 12.—Representative Foss, of Ohio, bitterly attacked Great Britain yesterday in the House, of wilful disregard of rights of American shipping. "They have been greater by far, than of which Germany has been guilty," said Foss, but added that he does not condone violation of our rights by either country.

LONDON, January 12.—Russian line in Galicia reported to be digging itself in on ground it has won. Austria's fortifications reported to be going up along the line of the river Strippa, where fighting of past few weeks has been so bloody and desperate.

PARIS, January 12.—Metal workers in great steel districts of Spain, have gone on strike.

THE HAGUE, January 12.—It is probable that peace party will select Jane Adams, William J. Bryan, and Henry Ford to be active members of the party.

LONDON, January 12.—Opposition in the house of commons to compulsory military service bill, is rapidly dwindling due to elimination of Ireland from scope of compulsion.

Dispatches from Sofia announce last night that Teuton aeroplane had successfully bombed outskirts of Saloniki.

PARIS, January 11.—Taking offensive on Sunday in Champagne, Germans launched three divisions at French line in strong effort to break through and gain position. Offensive failed, although advance of the Germans gained some trenches. They have also been driven out with exception of those who took small rectangular position of Maisons de Champagne.

Bounty Can Now Be Collected On Mongoose

Ten cents each will be paid by the territory for dead mongoose heads, according to announcement made by Territorial Treasurer C. J. McCarthy. This is putting into force the old law against mongoose, which has been on the statute books for seven or eight years, but which has been a dead letter until now on account of each legislature until the last neglecting to provide an appropriation for paying the bounty.

Under the law the heads of dead mongoose are to be delivered to the tax assessors of the various districts, who will forward them to the treasurer, who is empowered to pay the bounty. The appropriation is sufficient to pay for 25,000 mongoose.
